

List 159. APPLICATION WORDS

Filling out applications for special programs, jobs, and services is part of everyone's life. This list will help students be ready to fill-in-the-blanks confidently. These words are a must for older language learners as well.

Elementary

address	date of birth	male	P.M. age	driver's license	Miss	previous A.M.	education	month/day/year	primary applicant	elementary school	mother	print attending	emergency	Mr.	rent awards	employer	Mrs.	resident beginner	father	Ms.	school birth certificate	female	municipality	sex birth date	first choice	name (last, first)	signature brother(s)	health insurance	next of kin	sister(s) carefully	height	nickname	Social Security children	high school	notification	number citizen	home	own	state city	honors	per week	telephone college	husband	permanent	weight country	in full	personal	wife county	language	phone	work current	list	physician	year date	location		ZIP Code

Intermediate

ability to learn	exemptions	license plate	shift academic history	experience	list in order	sick leave application	extension	maiden name	signature apply in person	fringe benefits	married	single available immedi- ately	full-time	mature	Social Security card bonus	graduated	NOK (next of kin)	Social Security number certificate	health plan	overtime	special skills chronological	health provider	part-time	status claim form	hobbies	passport	temporary compensation	human resources	pension plan	trainees department	identification	permanent	union dependents	immigration	personal day	vacation divorced	incentive	personal statement	visa DOB	income	personnel	vita dues	inexperienced	preference	voluntary earn	insurance	prior experience	volunteer eligible	interns	references	widow employment	internships	résumé	widower equal opportunity	landlord	salary	withholding ethnicity	license	seniority	work history

See also List 157, Daily Living Words; List 158, Travel Words; List 160, Work Words.